Which amount applies to my highly skilled migrant?

	First application for residence permit	Extension of validity reidence permit	In case of change of sponsor
Highly skilled migrant after making use of the orientation year, or Highly skilled migrant who meets the requirements of the orientation year	The standard amount low income requirement, valid on the date of the first application.	The (indexed) standard amount low income requirement, valid on the date of the application for extension.	The (indexed) standard amount low income requirement, valid on the date of change.
Highly skilled migrant younger than 30 years	The standard amount for highly skilled migrants younger than 30 years, valid on the date of the first application.	If the highly skilled migrant is 30 years or over: the (indexed) standard amount for highly skilled migrants younger than 30 years, valid on the date of the application for extension, providing that they are still working for the same sponsor as they were when the first residence permit was granted.	If the highly skilled migrant is still younger than 30 years: the indexed standard amount for highly skilled migrants younger than 30 years, valid on the date of change. If the highly skilled migrant is 30 years or older: the indexed standard amount for highly skilled migrants of 30 years or over, valid on the date of change.
Highly skilled migrant 30 years or older	The standard amount for highly skilled migrants of 30 years or over, valid on the date of the first application.	The (indexed) standard amount for highly skilled migrants of 30 years or over, valid on the date of the application for extension.	The (indexed) standard amount for highly skilled migrants of 30 years or over, valid on the date of change.
European Blue Card	The standard amount for European Blue Card holders, valid on the date of the application.	The standard amount for European Blue Card holders, valid on the date of the application for extension.	The standard amount for European Blue Card holders, valid on the date of change.