

CODE2040

Fact Sheet, Sources, & Other Stats

- 19% of computer science Bachelor's degrees are earned by Black and Latinx students (2018)
Source: National Science Foundation
- On average 5% of the technical workforce [engineers] at tech companies in Silicon Valley are Black or Latinx (2014)
Source: USA Today
- 4.1% and 4.8% of software developers are Black or Latinx, respectively (2016)
Source: Bureau of National Labor Statistics
- 1.4 Million new tech jobs in US by 2020 (2014)
Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics
- 70% forecast of tech jobs that are unfilled in American workforce by 2020 (2014)
Source: National Center for Education Statistics
- The median net worth of White households is $132,483, compared to $9,211 for Black households and $12,460 of Latinx households (2013)
Source: US Census
- Demographic changes in the US fueled by Black and Latinx populations (2012)
Source: ESRI
Source: The US Census and Bureau of Labor Statistics
- 3 Trillion Dollars in the US Economy are spent by Black and Latinx Consumers (2015)
Source: University of Georgia
Source: Nielson
- 35% increase in performance from racially diverse teams (2017)
Source: McKinsey