

05 October 2018

Jonathan Zuck, Chair
Competition, Consumer Trust, and Consumer Choice Review Team

RE: Competition, Consumer Trust, and Consumer Choice Review Team Final Report

Dear Jonathan,

The ICANN Board confirms receipt of the Final Report of the Competition, Consumer Trust, and Consumer Choice (CCT) Review Team, dated 8 September 2018. We thank you and the members of the CCT Review Team for your dedicated work and contributions to this review. The Board recognizes the significant commitment of time and hard work that has gone into conducting this review and assembling the Final Report.

We are encouraged by the interest within the ICANN community, demonstrated during multiple comment periods and the various discussions that the CCT Review Team inspired during the last several years.

I understand that ICANN org is posting the Final Report for public comments in order to further the Board's consideration of the Final Report, within the 6-month period, in line with the ICANN Bylaws.

Again, we thank the CCT Review Team for its diligence and dedicated work on this important review.

Best regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Cherine Chalaby", with a horizontal line underneath.

Cherine Chalaby
Chair, ICANN Board of Directors