GENERAL CONDITIONS

- Only European residents can travel with an Interrail Pass. If you are a non-European resident, you can travel with an Eurail Pass.
- The Interrail Global Pass is valid for travel in your country of residence during one outbound journey and one inbound journey that occur during travel days at any point in your trip
- The Interrail Pass is valid for travel with participating train, ferry and public transport companies
- Most high-speed and night trains require a reservation at an additional cost
- 1st class Passes are valid in both 1st and 2nd class carriages. 2nd class Passes are only valid in 2nd class carriages
- All standard Interrail Passes are refundable or exchangeable if they are returned unused

Flexible Planning

You can buy an Interrail Global Pass up to 11 months before you travel. All you need to know is when you want to travel to get transportation checked off your list!

¹ Children under 4 travel for free and do not need an Interrail Pass. You may be asked to sit a child under 4 on your lap during busy times. Children aged 4 to 11 travel for free with a Child Pass. A child must be accompanied at all times by at least one person with an Adult Pass. This doesn't have to be a family member and can be anyone over 18. Up to 2 children can travel with 1 adult. For example, when 2 adults are traveling, they can take 4 children with them. If more than 2 children are traveling with 1 adult, a separate 1st class Youth Pass must be purchased for each additional child
