INSTRUCTIONS

The Instructions Numbered 1 to 20 Correspond with the Item Numbers on the First Page of the Return

1. INCOME FROM SALARIES, WAGES, COMMISSIONS, ETC.

Enter as Item 1 on page 1 of the return, all salaries or other compensation credited by or received from outside sources. Use a separate line for each entry, giving the information requested.

Any amount claimed as a deduction for necessary expenses against salaries, etc., such as traveling expenses, while away from home in the pursuit of a trade or business, should be fully explained in Schedule F on page 2 of the return, or on an attached statement. Traveling expenses ordinarily include expenditures for railroad fares, meals, and lodging.

2. INCOME FROM BUSINESS OR PROFESSION

If you owned a business, or practices a profession on your own account, fill in Schedule A on page 2 of the return, and enter the net income (or loss) as Item 2 on page 1 of the return.

This schedule should include income from: (a) Sale of merchandise or products of manufacturing, mining, construction, and agriculture; (b) Business service, such as hotel, restaurant, and garage service, amusements, laundering, storage, transportation, etc.; and (c) Professional service, such as dentistry, law, or medicine. In general, report any income in the earning of which you incurred expenses for material, labor, supplies, etc.

Farmer's income schedule.—If you are a farmer and keep no books of account, or keep books on a cash basis, obtain from the Collector, and attach to this return. Form 1040F, Schedule of Farm Income and Expenses, and enter the net farm income as Item 2 on page 1 of this return. If your farm books of account are kept on an accrual basis, the filing of Form 1040F is optional.

Installment sales.—If the installment method is used, attach to the return a schedule showing separately for the years (1929, 1930, 1931, and 1932 the following: (a) Gross sules; (b) Cost of goods sold; (c) Gross profits; (d) Percentage of profits to gross sales; (e) Amount collected; and (f) Gross profit on amount collected. See Section 44 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

Kind of business,—Describe the business or profession in the space provided at the top of page I, as "grocery," "retail clothing," "drug store," "laundry," "doctor," "lawyer," "farmer,"

Total receipts.—Enter on time 1 of Schedule A the total receipts, less any discounts or allowances from the sale price or service charge.

Inventories.—If engaged in a trade or business in which the production, purchase, or sale of merchandise is an income producing factor, inventories of merchandise on hand should be taken at the beginning and end of the taxable year, which may be valued at cost, or cost or market, whichever is lower.

Salaries.—Enter on Line 10 all salaries not included as "Labor" on Line 2, except compensation for services of yourself, your dependent minor children, or of husband or wife if a joint return is filed, which is not deductible.

Interest.—Enter on time 11 interest on business indebtedness. Do not include interest to yourself on capital invested in or advanced to the business.

Tuxes.—Enter on Line 12 taxes on business property or for carrying on business. Do not include taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, nor Federal income taxes.

Losses.—Enter on Line 13 losses incurred in the trade or business, if not compensated for by insurance or otherwise and not made good by repairs claimed as a deduction. Losses of business property arising from fire, storm, etc., should be explained in the table at the foot of page 2 of the return.

Bad debts.—Enter on Line 14 debts, or portions thereof, arising from sales or services that have been reflected in income, which have been definitely ascertained to be worthless and charged off within the year, or such reasonable amount as has been added to a reserve for bad debts within the year.

A debt previously charged off as bad, if subsequently collected, must be returned as income for the year in which collected.

Depreciation.—Enter on Line 15 the amount claimed as depreciation by reason of exhaustion, wear and tear of property used in the trade or business, or as obsolescence or depletion, and explain in the table at the foot of page 2 how this amount was determined. If obsolescence is claimed, explain why the useful life is less than the actual life.

The amount of depreciation on property acquired by purchase should be determined upon the basis of the original cost (not replacement cost) of the property and the probable number of years remaining of its useful life, except if the property was purchased prior to March 1, 1913, it will be computed on the fair market value of such property as of that date or its original cost, whichever is greater. If the property was acquired in any other manner than by purchase, see Section 23(k), 23(m), and 114 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

In case a deduction is claimed on amount of depletion of mines, oil or gas wells, or timber, see Sections 23(I), 23(m), and 114 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

Do not claim any deduction for depreciation in the value of a building occupied by you as a dwelling, or property held for personal use, nor for land (exclusive of improvements thereon), nor on stocks, bonds, and securities.

Rents, repairs, and other expenses,--Enter on Line 16 rent on business property in which you have no equity, ordinary repairs to keep the property in a usable condition, and other necessary business expenses not classified above, such as heat, light, and fire insurance. Do not include tent for a dwelling occupied by you for residential purposes, the cost of business equipment or furniture, expenditures for replacements or permanent improvements to property, nor personal, living, or family expenses.

Deficit.—If the amount to be entered on Line 19 shows a deficit, such amount should be preceded by a minus sign or written with red ink.

3. INTEREST ON BANK DEPOSITS, ETC.

Enter as Item 3 all interest received or credited to your account during the taxable year on bank deposits, notes, mortgages, and corporation bonds, except interest on bonds upon which a tax was paid at the source. Interest on bonds is considered income when due and payable.

4. INTEREST ON TAX-FREE COVENANT BONDS

Enter as Item 4 bond interest upon which a tax was paid at source. Such tax (2 per cent of the interest entered in Item 4) may be claimed as a credit in Item 39 of the return.

5 AND 6. INCOME FROM PARTNERSHIPS, SYNDICATES, POOLS, ETC., AND FIDUCIARIES

Enter as Item 5 your share (whether received or not) of the profits of a partnership, syndicate, pool, etc., and as Item 6 income from an estate or trust, except that the share of (a) capital net gain or loss computed as provided in Instruction 8a shall be reported in Schedule D. (b) taxable interest on obligations of the United States shall be included in Schedule E. and (c) profits which consisted of dividends on stock of domestic corporations shall be included in hem 10 ((a) and/or (b)) on the return. Include in hems 39 and 40, respectively, credits claimed for income tax paid at source, and foreign income taxes.

If the taxable year on the basis of which you file your return fails to coincide with the annual accounting period of the partnership or fiduciary, then you should include in your return your distributive share of the net profits for such accounting period ending within your taxable year.

7. INCOME FROM RENTS AND ROYALTIES

Fill in Schedule B, giving the information requested.

If you receive property or crops in lieu of cash rent, report the income as though the rent had been received in cash. Crops received as rent on a cropshare basis should be reported as income for the year in which disposed of (unless your return shows income accrued).

Enter as depreciation the amount of wear and tear, or depletion sustained during the taxable if 1932, and explain in the table at the foot of page 2.

Other expenses, such as interest, taxes, fire insurance, fuel, light, labor, and other necessary expenses of this character should be itemized.

8. PROFIT FROM SALE OF REAL ESTATE, BONDS, ETC.

Describe the property briefly in Schedule C, and state the price received, or the fair market value of the property received in exchange. Expenses connected with the sale may be deducted in computing the profit or loss.

If gain or loss is computed on March 1, 1913, value, both cost and March 1, 1913, value must be shown and full information given as to how March 1, 1913, value was determined, if the amount shown as cost is other than actual cash cost of the property sold, full details must be furnished regarding the acquisition of the property.

Enter as depreciation the amount of wear and tear, obsolescence, or depletion which has been allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) in respect of such property since date of acquisition, or since March 1, 1913, if the property was acquired before that date. In addition, if the property was acquired before March 1, 1913, and if the cost of such property is greater than its fair market value as of that date, the cost shall be reduced by the depreciation actually sustained before that date.

Deductions for losses from sales or exchanges of stocks and bonds which as not capital assets as defined in Section 101 of the 1932 Act shall be allowed only to the extent of the gains from such sales or exchanges (including gains which may be derived by a taxpayer from the retirement of his own obligations). See Section 23(r) and (r) of the Revenue Act of 1932.

Subsequent improvements include expenditures for additions, improvements, and repairs made to restore the property or prolong its useful life.

No loss shall be recognized in any sale or other disposition of stock or securities where you have acquired substantially identical stock or securities within 30 days before or after the date of such sale, unless you are a dealer in securities.

In case the amount to be entered in Column 8 is a deductible loss, such amount should be preceded by a minus sign or written with red ink.

8a. CAPITAL NET GAIN OR LOSS

If desired, a capital net gain derived from the sale or exchange of capital assets may be computed separately and a tax of 12½ per cent paid thereon in lieu of the normal tax and surfax. The term "capital are gain" means the excess of the total amount of capital gain over the sum of (a) the capital deductions and capital losses, plus (b) the amount, if any, by which the ordinary deductions exceed the gross income computed without captain gain.

In case a capital net loss is sustained from the sale or exchange of capital assets, the total normal tax and surrax computed on the basis of the ordinary net income shall be reduced by 12½ per cent of such capital net loss; but in no case shall the tax computed in this manner be less than the total normal tax and surtax that would be imposed without the benefit of this provision. The term "capital net loss" means the excess of the sum of the capital losses plus the capital deductions over the total amount of capital gain.

The term "capital assets" means property held by you for more than two years (whether or not connected with your trade or business), but does not include your stock in trade or other property of a kind which would properly be included in your inventory if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or property held by you primarily for sale in the course of your trade or business.

Fill in Schedule D in accordance with Instruction 8, if the tax is computed under this provision, and enter 12½ per cent of the capital net gain or loss as Item 37 on page 1 of the return, in case of a capital net loss, the amount of such loss and the credit claimed should be preceded by a minus sign or written with red fitk. See Section 101 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

The amount claimed shall not exceed 15 per cent of your net income computed without the benefit of this deduction.

A fiduciary filing the return for an estate in process of administration may claim, in lieu of this deduction, that provided in Section 162 of the 1932 Act.

List organizations and amounts contributed to each in Schedule F.

18. OTHER DEDUCTIONS

Enter as Item 18 any other authorized deductions for which no space is provided on the return, except deduction for net loss for 1931, which should be entered as from 21. Do not deduct losses incurred in transactions which were neither connected with your trade or business. nor entered into for profit.

If the return is filed for an estate in process of administration, there should be deducted the amount of any income paid or credited to a beneficiary

Any deduction claimed should be explained in Schedule F.

19. TOTAL DEDUCTIONS IN ITEMS 13 TO 18

Enter as Item 19 the total of Items 13 to 18, inclusive. This amount should not include any deduction claimed in Schedule A or B.

20. NET INCOME

Enter as Item 20 the net income, which is obtained by deducting Item 19 from Item 12. The net income shall be computed upon the basis of the taxable year in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping your books, unless such method does not clearly reflect your income.

21. PERSONS REQUIRED TO MAKE A RETURN OF INCOME

An income tax return must be filed by every citizen of the United States whether residing at home or abroad, and every person residing in the United States though not a citizen thereof, whose gross income for the taxable year 1932 amounted to $5,000, or whose net income amounted to—

- (a) $1,000 if single or if married and not living with husband or wife:
- (b) $2,500 if married and living with husband or wife; or
- (c) More than the personal exemption if status of taxpayer changes.
- If an individual is single and the net income, including that of dependent minors, if any, is $1,000 or over, or if the gross income is $5,000 or over, a return must be filed. If the combined tet income of husband and wife, and dependent minor children, if any, is $2,500 or over, or if their combined gross income is $5,000 or over, all such income must be reported on a joint return, or on separate returns of husband and wife. In case the husband and wife elect to file separate returns and their combined net income is $5,000 or over, each shall make a return on Form 1040.

If the net income of a decedent to the date of his death was $1,000 or over, if unmarried. or $2,500 or over, if married and living with husband or wife, or if his gross income for the period was $5,000 or over, the executor or administrator shall make a return for him on Form ретное was элл 1040 от 1040A.

Income of (a) estates of decedents before final settlement. (b) trusts, whether created by will or deed, for unascertained persons or persons with contingent interests; or income held under the terms of the will or trust for future distribution, is taxed to the fiduciary as a single person, except that from the income of a decedent's estate there should be deducted any amount properly paid or credited to a beneficiary.

22. PERSONAL EXEMPTION AND CREDIT FOR DEPENDENTS

A single person, or a married person not living with husband or wife, may claim an exemption of $1,000. A person who was the head of a family or was morried and living with husband or wife during the entire taxable year, may claim an exemption of $2,500. If husband and wife file separate returns, the exemption may be taken by either or divided between them.

A "head of a family" is an individual who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood relationship, relationship. by marriage, or by adoption, and whose right to exercise family control and provide for those dependent individuals is based upon some moral or legal obligation.

In addition to the personal exemption, a credit of $400 may be claimed for each person (other than hasband or wife) under eighteen years of age, or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective, who received his or her chief support from the taxpayer during the taxable year. This credit can be claimed only by the person who furnishes the chief support, and can not be divided between two individuals.

If the status of the taxpayer, in so far as it affects the personal exemption or credit for dependents, changes during the taxable year, the personal exemption and credit shall be apportioned in accordance with the number of months before and after such change. For the purpose of such apportionment a fractional part of a mouth shall be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a mouth in which case it shall be considered as a mouth.

Where a return is filed on Form 1040 for an estate in process of administration, or for a trust, an exemption of $1,000 may be claimed

22. COMPUTATION OF TAX

Income from a partnership or fiduciary computed on a fiscal year basis. income from a partnership of induciary computed on a fiscal year dashs.—He tax on income received from a fiduciary making a return for a fiscal year ended in 1932 shall be computed as if such income were for the calendar year 1932. If income is received from a partnership making its return for a fiscal year ended in 1932, the part of such income attributable to 1932 shall be added to your other income for that year subject to 1932 rates and the resulting amount shall be placed in the lower brackets of the rate schedule applicable to 1932, and the part of such income attributable to 1931 shall be placed in the next higher brackets of the rate schedule applicable to 1931.

Surtax.—The surtax for any amount of net income not shown in the table below is computed by adding to the surtax for the largest amount shown which is less than the income, the surtax upon the excess over that amount at the rate indicated in the table.

In the case of a bona fide sale of mines, oil or gas wells, or any interest therein, the surfax on the profit shall not exceed 16 per cent of the selling price. See Section 102 of the Revenue Act of 1932.
