Farmer's income schedule.—If you are a farmer and keep no books of account, have been seen to be the latest and the latest are the first transfer.

Farmer's income schedule.—If you are a farmer and keep no books of account, or keep books on a cash basis, obtain from the Collector, and attach to this return, Form 1040F, Schedule of Farm Income and Expenses, and enter the net farm income as Item 2 on page 1 of this return. If your farm books of account are kept on an accrual basis, the filing of Form 1040F is optional.

Installment sales.—If the installment method is used, attach to the return a schedule showing separately for the years 1931, 1932, 1933, and 1934 the following: (a) Gross sales; (b) Cost of goods sold; (c) Gross profits; (d) Percentage of profits to gross sales; (e) Amount collected; and (f) Gross profit on amount collected. See Section 44 of the Revenue Act of 1934.

Kind of business.—Describe the business or profession in the space provided collected. See Section 44 of the Revenue Act of 1934.

Kind of business.—Describe the business or profession in the space provided in Item 2, page 1, as "grocery," "retail clothing," "drug store," "laundry," "doctor," "lawyer," "farmer," etc.

Total receipts.—Enter on Line 1 of Schedule A the total receipts, less any discounts or allowances from the sale price or service charge.

Inventories.—If engaged in a trade or business in which the production, purchase, or sale of merchandise is an income-producing factor, inventories of merchandise on hand should be taken at the beginning and end of the taxable year, which may be valued at cost, or cost or market, whichever is lower.

Salaries.—Enter on Line 10 all salaries not included as "Labor" on Line 2, except compensation for services of yourself, your dependent minor children, or of husband or wife if a joint return is filed, which is not deductible.

Interest.—Enter on Line 11 interest on business indebtedness. Do not include

Interest.—Enter on Line 11 interest on business indebtedness. Do not include Taxes.—Enter on Line 12 taxes on business interest to the business.

Taxes.—Enter on Line 12 taxes on business property or for carrying on business. Do not include taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, nor Federal income taxes, nor estate, inheritance, legacy, succession, and gift taxes.

Losses.—Enter on Line 13 losses incurred in the trade or business, if not com-

Losses.—Enter on Line 13 losses incurred in the trade or business, if not compensated for by insurance or otherwise and not made good by repairs claimed as a deduction. Losses of business property arising from fire, storm, etc., should be explained in the table at the foot of page 2 of the return.

Bad debts.—Enter on Line 14 debts, or portions thereof, arising from sales or services that have been reflected in income, which have been definitely ascertained to be worthless and charged off within the year, or such reasonable amount as has been added to a reserve for bad debts within the year.

A debt previously charged off as bad, if subsequently collected, must be returned as income for the year in which collected.

Depreciation.—Enter on Line 15 the amount claimed as depreciation by reason of exhaustion, wear and tear of property used in the trade or business, or as of exhaustion, wear and tear of property used in the trade or business, or as obsolescence or depletion, and explain in the table at the foot of page 2 how this amount was determined. If obsolescence is claimed, explain why the useful life is less than the actual life.

The amount of depreciation on property acquired by purchase should be The amount of depreciation on property acquired by purchase should be determined upon the basis of the original cost (not replacement cost) of the property and the probable number of years remaining of its useful life, except if the property was purchased prior to March 1, 1913, it will be computed on the fair market value of such property as of that date or its original cost (less depreciation actually sustained before that date), whichever is greater. If the property was acquired in any other manner than by purchase, see Sections 23 (1), 23 (n), and 114 of the Revenue Act of 1934.

In case a deduction is claimed on account of depletion of mines, oil or gas wells, or timber, see Sections 23 (m), 23 (n), and 114 of the Revenue Act of 1934.

Do not claim any deduction for depreciation in the value of a building occupied by you as a dwelling, or property held for personal use, nor for land (exclusive of improvements thereon), nor on stocks, bonds, and securities.

Rent, repairs, and other expenses.—Enter on Line 16 rent on business property in which you have no equity, ordinary repairs to keep the property in a usable condition, and other necessary business expenses not classified above, such as heat, light, and fire insurance. Do not include rent for a dwelling occupied by you for residential purposes, the cost of business equipment or furniture, expenditures for replacements or permanent improvements to property, nor personal, living, or family expenses.

3. INTEREST ON BANK DEPOSITS, ETC.

Enter as Item 3 all interest received or credited to your account during the taxable year on bank deposits, notes, mortgages, and corporation bonds, except interest on bonds upon which a tax was paid at the source. Interest on bonds is considered income when due and payable.

4. INTEREST ON TAX-FREE COVENANT BONDS

Enter as Item 4 bond interest upon which a tax was paid at source. Such tax (2 percent of the interest entered in Item 4) may be claimed as a credit in Item 32 of the return.

5 AND 6. INCOME FROM PARTNERSHIPS, SYNDICATES, POOLS, ETC., AND FIDUCIARIES

Enter as Item 5 your share of the profits (whether received or not) (or of the losses) of a partnership, syndicate, pool, etc., and as Item 6 income from an estate or trust, except that the share of (a) taxable interest on obligations of the United States shall be included in Schedule D, and (b) profits which consisted of dividends on stock of domestic corporations which are subject to income tax shall be included in Item 10 (a) on the return. Include in Items 32 and 33, respectively, credits claimed for income tax paid at source, and foreign income

If the taxable year on the basis of which you file your return does not coincide with the annual accounting period of the partnership or fiduciary, then you should include in your return your distributive share of the net profits (or losses) for such accounting period ending within your taxable year.

7. INCOME FROM RENTS AND ROYALTIES

Fill in Schedule B, giving the information requested.

If you received property or crops in lieu of cash rent, report the income as though the rent had been received in cash. Crops received as rent on a cropshare basis should be reported as income for the year in which disposed of (unless your return shows income accrued).

Enter as depreciation the amount of wear and tear, or depletion sustained during the taxable year 1934, and explain in the table at the foot of page 2.

Other expenses, such as interest, taxes, fire insurance, fuel, light, labor, and other necessary expenses of this character should be itemized.

8. CAPITAL GAINS AND LOSSES

Report sales or exchanges of capital assets in Schedule C and enter the net gain or loss to be taken into account in computing net income as Item 8. (CAPITAL LOSSES ARE ALLOWABLE ONLY TO THE EXTENT OF $2,000 PLUS CAPITAL GAINS.) Describe the property briefly, and state the price received or the fair market value of the property received in exchange. Expenses connected with the sale or exchange may be deducted in computing the profit or loss If the property sold or exchanged was acquired prior to March 1, 1913, the basis for determining GAIN is the cost or the fair market value as of March 1, 1913, adjusted as provided in section 113 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1934, whichever is greater, but in determining LOSS the basis is cost. (See section 113 of the Revenue Act of 1934.) If the amount shown as cost is other than actual cash cost of the property sold or exchanged, full details must be furnished regarding the acquisition of the property.

Extended the property of the amount of wear and tear obsolescence or depletion

Enter as depreciation the amount of wear and tear, obsolescence, or depletion which has been allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) in respect of such property since date of acquisition, or since March 1, 1913, if the property was acquired before that date. In addition, if the property was acquired before March 1, 1913, and if the cost of such property is greater than its fair market value as of that date, the cost shall be reduced by the depreciation actually sustained before that date.

Subsequent improvements include expenditures for additions, improvements, and repairs made to restore the property or prolong its useful life. Do not deduct ordinary repairs, interest, or taxes in computing gain or loss.

No loss shall be recognized in any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or securities where you have acquired substantially identical stock or securities or securities where you have acquired substantially identical stock or securities within 30 days before or after the date of such sale or disposition, unless you are engaged in the trade or business of buying and selling stocks and securities.

No deduction shall be allowed in respect of losses from sales or exchanges of property, directly or indirectly, (A) between members of a family, or (B) except in the case of distributions in liquidation, between an individual and a corporation in which such individual owns, directly or indirectly, more than 50 per centum in value of the outstanding stock. For the purpose of this paragraph (C) an individual shall be considered as owning the stock owned, directly or indirectly, by his family; and (D) the family of an individual shall include only his brothers and sisters (whether by the whole or half blood), spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants. and lineal descendants.

The provisions of the Revenue Act of 1934 relating to capital gains and

The provisions of the Revenue Act of 1934 relating to capital gains and losses are:

Sec. 117. (a) General rule.—In the case of a taxpayer, other than a corporation, only the following percentages of the gain or less recognized upon the sale or exchange of a capital asset shall be taken into account in computing not income:

100 per centum if the capital asset has been held for more than 1 year;
180 per centum if the capital asset has been held for more than 1 year but not for more than 5 years;
180 per centum if the capital asset has been held for more than 2 years but not for more than 5 years;

9. INTEREST ON LIBERTY BONDS, ETC.

Schedule D should be filled in if you own any of the obligations or securities enumerated in Column 1. Enter in Column 2 the principal amounts of the various obligations owned and enter in Column 3 all interest received or credited to your account during the year on these obligations, including your share of such interest received from a partnership, or an estate or trust.

Interest on all coupons falling due within the taxable year will be considered as income for the year, where the books are kept on a cash receipts and disbursements basis. If the books are kept on an accrual basis, report the actual amount of interest accrued on the obligations owned during the taxable year.

If the obligations enumerated on Line (e) are owned in excess of the exemption of $5,000, or any on Line (f) are owned in any amount. Columns 5 and 6 should of $5,000, or any on Line (f) are owned in any amount, Columns 5 and 6 should be filled in, and the total of the interest reported in Column 6 should be entered as Item 9 on page 1 of the return.

(See also Instruction 24, paragraph (d).)

10. DIVIDENDS

Enter as Item 10 (a) dividends from a domestic corporation which is subject to taxation under Title I of the 1934 Act (other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of Section 251 of the 1934 Act and other than a corporation organized under the China Trade Act, 1922), including your share of such dividends received on stock owned by a partnership, or an estate or trust. Enter as Item 10 (b) dividends from a domestic corporation which is not subject to taxation under Title I of the 1934 Act (such as a building and loan association, etc.). Enter as Item 10 (c) dividends from a foreign corporation and dividends from a corporation entitled to the benefits of Section 251 of the 1934 Act and a corporation organized under the China Trade Act, 1922.

Dividends reported in Item 10 (a) or 10 (c) must include Federal excise tax thereon, withheld at source. Such tax is deductible in Item 14.

11. OTHER INCOME

Enter as Item 11 all other taxable income for which no space is provided on

12. TOTAL INCOME

Enter as Item 12 the net amount of Items 1 to 11, inclusive, after deducting any expenses reported in Item 1, and losses in Items 2, 5, 7, and 8.

13. INTEREST PAID

Enter as Item 13 interest paid on personal indebtedness as distinguished from business indebtedness (which should be deducted under Schedule A or B). Do not include interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations the interest upon which is wholly exempt from taxation.

14. TAXES PAID

Enter as Item 14 personal taxes and taxes paid on property not used in your business or profession, not including those assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed. Do not include Federal income taxes, nor estate, inheritance, legacy, succession, and gift taxes, nor taxes imposed upon your interest as shareholder of a corporation which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from you, nor income taxes claimed as a credit in Item 33. No deduction is allowable for any portion of foreign income and profits taxes if a credit is claimed in Item 33.

Any deduction on account of taxes should be explained in Schedule F.

15. LOSSES BY FIRE, STORM, ETC.

Enter as Item 15 losses of property not connected with your business or profession, sustained during the year if arising from fire, storm, shipwreck, or other casualty, or from theft, and if not compensated for by insurance or otherwise. See Section 23 (e) of the Revenue Act of 1934.

Explain losses claimed in the table provided on page 2 of the return.

16. BAD DEBTS

Enter as Item 16 all bad debts other than those claimed as a deduction in Schedule A. State in Schedule F, (a) of what the debts consisted, (b) when they were created, (c) when they became due, (d) what efforts were made to collect, and (e) how they were actually determined to be worthless.

17. CONTRIBUTIONS

Enter as Item 17 contributions or gifts made within the taxable year to any corporation, or trust, or community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation. The amount claimed shall not exceed 15 percent of your net income computed without the benefit of this deduction. A fiduciary filing the return for an estate may claim, in lieu of this deduction, that provided in Section 162 of the 1934 Act. List organizations and amounts contributed to each in Schedule F.

18. OTHER DEDUCTIONS

Enter as Item 18 any other authorized deductions for which no space is proded on the return. Do not deduct losses incurred in transactions which were vided on the return. Do not deduct losses incurred in transactions which were neither connected with your trade or business, nor entered into for profit, nor expenditures incurred in earning wholly tax-exempt income other than interest. If the return is filed for an estate in process of administration, there should be deducted the amount of any income paid or credited to a beneficiary. Any deduction claimed should be explained in Schedule F.

19. TOTAL DEDUCTIONS IN ITEMS 13 TO 18

Enter as Item 19 the total of Items 13 to 18, inclusive. This amount should not include any deduction claimed in Schedule A or B.

20. NET INCOME

Enter as Item 20 the net income, which is obtained by deducting Item 19 from Item 12. The net income shall be computed upon the basis of the taxable year in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping your books, unless such method does not clearly reflect your income.

21. PERSONS REQUIRED TO MAKE A RETURN OF INCOME

An income tax return must be filed by every citizen of the United States whether residing at home or abroad, and every person residing in the United States though not a citizen thereof, whose gross income for the taxable year 1934 amounted to $5,000, or whose net income amounted to—amounted to $5,000, or whose net income amounted to—

(a) $1,000 if single or if married and not living with husband or wife;

(b) $2,500 if married and living with husband or wife; or

(c) More than the personal exemption if status of taxpayer changed.

If an individual is single and the net income, including that of dependent minors, if any, is $1,000 or over, or if the gross income is $5,000 or over, a return must be filed. If the combined net income of husband and wife, and dependent minor children, if any, is $2,500 or over, or if their combined gross income is $5,000 or over, all such income must be reported on a joint return, or on separate returns of husband and wife. In case the husband and wife elect to file separate returns and their combined net income is $5,000 or over, each shall make a return on Form 1040. return on Form 1040.

return on Form 1040.

If the net income of a decedent to the date of his death was $1,000 or over, if unmarried, or in excess of the credit allowed him by Section 25 (b) (1) and (3) of the Revenue Act of 1934 (computed without regard to his status as the head of a family), if married and living with spouse, or if his gross income for the period was $5,000 or over, the executor or administrator shall make a return for him on Form 1040 or 1040A.

Income of (a) estates of decedents before final settlement, (b) trusts, whether the status has a significant or persons with contingent.

created by will or deed, for unascertained persons or persons with contingent interests; or income held under the terms of the will or trust for future distribution, is taxed to the fiduciary as a single person, except that from the income of a decedent's estate there should be deducted any amount properly paid or credited to a beneficiary.

Every person required to file an income return shall file with his return, whether taxable or nontaxable, a statement upon Form 1094 of the following items shown upon the return: (1) name and address, (2) total gross income, (3) total deductions, (4) net income, (5) total credits against net income for purposes of normal tax, and (6) tax payable. In case of any failure to file such statement with the return, the collector shall prepare it from the return, and $5 shall be added to the tax.

22. EARNED INCOME CREDIT, PERSONAL EXEMPTION, AND CREDIT FOR DEPENDENTS

For the purpose of the normal tax, but not for the surtax, there may be claimed a credit against net income of 10 per centum of the amount of the amount of the net income. "Earned income" means wages, salaries, professional fees, and other amounts received as compensation for personal services actually rendered, but does not include any amount not included in gross income, nor that part of the compensation derived by the taxpayer for personal services rendered by him to a corporation which represents a distribution of earnings or profits rather than a reasonable allowance as compensation for the personal services actually rendered. In the case of a taxpayer engaged in a trade or business in which both personal services and capital are material income producing factors, a reasonable allowance as compensation for the personal services naturally rendered by the taxpayer, not in excess of 20 per centum of his share of the net profits of such trade or business, shall be considered as earned income. "Earned income deductions" means such deductions as are allowed by Section 23 of the Revenue Act of 1934 for the purpose of computing net income, and are properly allocable to or chargeable against earned income. "Earned net income, ame are properly allocable to or chargeable against earned income. "Earned net income, and if his net income is more than $3,000, his entire net income shall be considered to be earned net income, and if his net income is more than $3,000, his earned net income shall not be considered to be less than $3,000. In one case shall the earned income be considered to be more than $14,000.

A person who was the head of a family or was married and living with husband or wife during the entire taxable year, may claim an exemption of $2,500. If husband and wife file separate returns, the exemption may be taken by either or divided between them.

A "head of a family" is an individual who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood re can be claimed only by the person who furnishes the chief support, and can not be divided between two individuals.

If the status of the taxpayer, insofar as it affects the personal exemption or credit for dependents, changed during the taxable year, the personal exemption and credit shall be apportioned in accordance with the number of months before and after such change. For the purpose of such apportionment a fractional part of a month shall be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month, in which case it shall be considered as a month.

Where a return is filed on this form for an estate in process of administration, or for a trust, an exemption of $1,000 may be claimed.

23. COMPUTATION OF TAX

Surtax.—The surtax on any amount of surtax net income not shown in the table below is computed by adding to the surtax for the largest amount shown which is less than the income, the surtax upon the excess over that amount at the rate indicated in the table.

Income from a partnership or fiduciary computed on a fiscal year basis.—The tax on income received from a fiduciary making a return for a fiscal year ended in 1934 shall be computed as if such income were for the calendar year 1934.

If the taxable year of a partner is different from that of the partnership, the distributive share of the net income of the partnership to be included in computing the net income of the partner for his taxable year shall be based upon the net income of the partnership for any taxable year of the partnership (whether beginning on, before, or after January 1, 1934) ending within the taxable year of the partner. (See Section 188 of the Revenue Act of 1934.)

Income tax paid to a foreign country or U.S. possession.—If, in accordance with Section 131 (a) of the 1934 Act, a credit is claimed in Item 33 for income tax paid to a foreign country or a possession of the United States, submit Form 1116 with your return with the receipts for such payments. In case credit is sought for taxes accrued, the form must have attached to it a certified copy of the return on which the tax was based, and the Commissioner may require a bond on Form 1117 for the payment of any tax found due if the tax when paid bond on Form 1117 for the payment of any tax found due if the tax when paid differs from the credit claimed.

24. ITEMS EXEMPT FROM TAX

The following items are exempt from Federal income tax and should not be included in gross income:

included in gross income:

(a) Amounts received under a life insurance contract paid by reason of the death of the insured, whether in a single sum or in installments (but if such amounts are held by the insurer under an agreement to pay interest thereon, the interest payments shall be included in gross income);

(b) Amounts received (other than amounts paid by reason of the death of the insured and interest payments on such amounts and other than amounts received as annuities) under a life insurance or endowment contract, but if such amounts (when added to amounts received before the tarable year under such contract) exceed the aggregate premiums or consideration paid (whether or not paid during the taxable year) then the excess shall be included in gross income, amounts received as an annuity under an annuity or endowment contract shall be included in gross income; except that there shall be accluded from gross income the excess of the amount received in the taxable year over an amount equal to 3 per cenium of the aggregate premiums or consideration paid for such annuity (whether or not paid during such year), until the aggregate amount excluded from gross income equals the aggregate premiums or consideration paid for such annuity. In the case of a transfer for a valuale consideration, by assignment or otherwise, of a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, or any interest therein, only the actual value of such consideration and the amount of the premiums and other sums subsequently paid by the transferce shall be exempt from taxation under paragraph (a) above or this paragraph;

(c) Gifts (not made as a consideration for service rendered) and money and property acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance (but the income derived from such property is taxable and must be reported);

c) Gills (not made as a consumentum to service broadcast, devise, or inheritance (but the income derived from such property is tarable and must be reported);

(d) Interest upon (1) the obligations of a State, Territory, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, or United States possessions; or (2) obligations issued under the provisions of the Federal Farm Loan Act or under such act as amended); or (3) the obligations of the United States (of the than obligations of instrumentalities of the United States (other than obligations issued under Federal Farm Loan Act or under such act as amended), such as Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation bonds, Home Owners' Loan Corporation bonds, etc. The interest on 4 percent and 4½ percent Liberty Bonds and Treasury bonds, owned in excess of $5,000, and on obligations of instrumentalities of the United States (other than obligations issued under Federal Farm Loan Act or under such act as amended) is subject to surtax if the surtax net income is over $4,000. Such interest should be reported in Schedule D and as Item 9 (see Instruction 9);

(e) Amounts received through accident or health insurance or under workmen's compensation acts, as compensation for personal injuries or sickness, plus the amount of any damages received, whether by suit or agreement, on account of such injuries or sickness;

(f) The rental value of a dwelling house and appurtenances thereof furnished to a minister of the gospel as part of his compensation;

(g) Compensation paid by a State or political subdivision thereof to its officers or employees for services rendered in connection with the exercise of an essential governmental funct'on; and

(h) Amounts received as earned income from sources without the United States (except amounts paid by the United States or any agency thereof) by an individual citizen of the United States who is a bona fide nonresident for more than 6 months during the taxable year. The taxpayer in such a case may not deduct from his gross income any amount pr

25. ACCRUED OR RECEIVED INCOME

If your books of account are kept on the accrual basis, report all income accrued, even though it has not been actually received or entered on the books, and expenses incurred instead of expenses paid. If your books are not kept on the accrual basis, report all income received or constructively received, such as bank interest credited to your account, and expenses paid. The return for a decedent shall include all items of income and deductions accrued up to the date of death regardless of the fact that the decedent may have kept his books on a cash basis.

26. PERIOD TO BE COVERED BY RETURN

The return must be filed on this form for the calendar year 1934 or for a fiscal year begun in 1934 and ended in 1935.
