

INSIDE HISTORY

The National Puerto Rican Day Parade (NPRDP) is the largest demonstration of cultural pride in the nation. Now in its 60th year, the parade takes place from 44th Street to 79th Street along Fifth Avenue in Manhattan, in honor of the 3.5 million inhabitants of Puerto Rico and over 5 million people residing in the United States.

In the NPRDP's ongoing commitment to promote the pursuit of higher education to advance our community, the NPRDP will award one hundred (100), scholarships to exceptional high school seniors and college/university students, students who are of Puerto Rican descent and giving back to their communities.

Winners will also have the opportunity to participate in the Rising Stars Challenge, where the NPRDP will select the 2017 Princess, Prince, Duke and Duchess of the Parade.

"Education is the Best Economic Equalizer. Invest in Education, it is among the best Investment for our Community"
