PROGRESS MADE | Our Social Impact Goals for 2030 and Beyond

Dell Technologies believes we are leaving too much potential talent on the table while in the midst of a talent shortage. Closing the diversity gap is critical to meeting future talent needs and incorporating new perspectives reflective of Dell's global customer base. We view diversity and inclusion as a business imperative that will enable us to build and empower our future workforce while also doing our part to address societal challenges.

- · We build and attract the future workforce
- · We develop and retain an empowered workforce
- · We scale for maximum impact

Additional Goals

- By 2030, 25% of our U.S. workforce and 15% of our U.S. people leaders will be those who identify as Black/ African American and Hispanic/Latino minorities
- Each year through 2030, 90% of our employees will rate their job as meaningful*
- By 2030, 50% of our employees will participate in Employee Resource Groups to drive social impact
- Each year through 2030, 75% of our employees will believe their leader is inspiring*
- By 2030, 95% of our employees will participate in annual foundational learning on key topics such as unconscious bias, harassment, microaggression and privilege
- Each year through 2030, 50% of the people empowered by our social and education initiatives will be those who identify as girls, women or underrepresented groups

*This goal's metric is based on the average rating employee respondents gave their leaders during our annual, internal and optional employee opinion survey of Dell Technologies employees.
