

AAA® Judicial Panel*

The map below illustrates the geographical composition of the AAA Judicial Panel by state.

Significant Facts about the AAA Judicial Panel

- 82% are former state court judges.
- 12% served in the federal court system.
- 33% are diverse, based on gender or race.
- 24% served at the appellate court level in either the federal or state court system.
- 47 states are represented plus the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

KEY

States by Number of Judges on the AAA Judicial Panel (D.C. and Puerto Rico included)

■ 1-3 Judges

- Alabama
- Alaska
- Hawaii
- Idaho
- Iowa
- Kentucky
- Mississippi
- Nebraska
- North Dakota
- Puerto Rico
- South Dakota
- Indiana
- Maine
- Massachusetts
- Montana
- New Hampshire
- Oregon
- Rhode Island
- Utah
- Virginia
- Delaware
- District of Columbia
- Oklahoma
- South Carolina
- Tennessee
- West Virginia

■ 4-7 Judges

- Louisiana
- New Mexico
- Wisconsin
- Georgia
- Maryland
- Connecticut
- Washington

■ 8-10 Judges

- Michigan
- Ohio
- Arizona
- Minnesota
- Missouri
- North Carolina

■ 11+ Judges

- Illinois
- Colorado
- Pennsylvania
- New York
- New Jersey
- California
- Florida
- Texas

