Associate of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies

The Associate of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies offers you the opportunity to develop diverse knowledge, skills, and abilities that provide a solid foundation for academic achievement. In this degree program, you'll combine general education courses with elective courses of your choice, helping you focus on fields most relevant to your interests, career, and goals. Successful achievement of this associate degree shows employers in all fields that you are capable of college-level studies and can persist in completing a degree program. Completion of this program can also serve as a springboard to a baccalaureate degree.

Note: This program does not qualify for Federal Student Aid

Degree Program Objectives

In addition to the institutional and degree level learning objectives, graduates of this program are expected to achieve these learning outcomes:

- Demonstrate knowledge of and respect for diverse, global cultures and societies
- Communicate and collaborate effectively in personal and professional contexts
- Identify academic disciplines and career paths that fit with personal and professional goals
