General Information

Eligibility

Entries are restricted to OAB member commercial and non-commercial radio stations. All entries must have been broadcast between January 1 and December 31, 2022.

News and sportscast entries are restricted to Friday, November 18, 2022. See category for details.

There is no limit to the number of entries a station may submit, but each entry may be submitted in only one category.

Entries must be locally produced. Syndicated or outside materials may be used but must play a secondary role in spot production and presentation.

Audio is required on all entries. While some categories may include written narrative, the final judgment is based on the over-the-air audio.

Judging

All entries will be judged by a panel of three out-of-state professionals from the field of broadcasting. Judges will consider overall excellence in creativity, originality, technical production and effectiveness. Judges will not evaluate entries from stations with which they may have a personal or business relationship. Awards will not be given in those categories in which the quality of entries does not meet the judges' criteria of excellence.

Radio Categories and Information

1. Newscast

An account of the news of the day in a regularly scheduled time block. Entry may be any newscast of any length aired on Friday, November 18, 2022. All syndicated features and commercials must be deleted. Entries will be judged on content, presentation, audience appeal, and pace. Local content is a major factor in judging.

2. Sportscast (Non-Metro Only)

Not play-by-play. An account of the sports news of the day, of any length, in a regularly scheduled broadcast on Friday, November 18, 2022. Sportscasts should be submitted in their entirety, excluding commercials. Entries will be judged on content, presentation, audience appeal and pace. Local content is a major factor in judging.

3. Play-By-Play (Non-Metro Only)

The live broadcast, produced and presented by station personnel, of a local high school, college, or professional athletic event. The entry must be ten minutes or less of the continuous broadcast of a game. The entry segment may not be edited other than the exclusion of commercials, which is required. The entry will be judged on overall presentation by the broadcast team, audience appeal, pace and professionalism exhibited.

4. Commercials (Non-Metro Only)

A single commercial announcement, 30 or 60-seconds, written and produced solely by station personnel. The use of outside agency assistance or materials is prohibited. The use of non-licensed elements beyond acceptable sampling is not allowed. Criteria are originality, good copy, and presentation. Emphasis on client and product is primary.

5. Website

Stations should submit the URL of their website's home page. Content may be supplemented by wire services or networks, but should provide timely information that is primarily generated by the station. Entries will be judged on content, innovation, use of audio and video, effective use of blogs, design, functionality and interactivity, timeliness of updates, and news coverage for news stations.

6. Station Image Promotion

The on-air campaigns for general image, special program, or on-air promotion or contest. Promotional events outside the station are not eligible. Entries may be a single or series (maximum 3 spots per entry), written and produced in-house. Spots may not exceed 60 seconds. Syndicated or outside materials may be used but must play a secondary role in the spot production and presentation.

7. General News (Metro Only)

A single news story or series of timely reports in a newscast(s). The criteria are clarity and thoroughness. Do not submit entire Newscasts.

8. Feature Story

A single report on a specific subject or perspective of a story. Topics may be news, human interest, informational, lifestyle or service oriented, but not "breaking news." The criteria for judging are storytelling technique, entertainment or informational value, and delivery.

9. Station Event Promotion (Non-Metro Only)

The on-air promotion of a station event outside of the station that may or may not have commercial sponsors. The event may generate revenues but is not necessarily designed as a revenue producer for the station. Single or series, maximum of three spots per entry. Entry is limited to on-air spots and no more than two pages of narrative. Maximum spot length is 60 seconds. Spots must have been written and produced in-house with limited use of syndicated materials.

10. Long Form (Non-Metro Only)

A long form special or regular program or series that does not meet the criteria of other competition categories. "Long form" is any length over five minutes. Entry must be a continuous segment of at least 5 minutes but not more than 20 minutes. The segment must be unedited other than commercials and music. The entry may include a one-page written narrative. The criteria for judging are human interest, entertainment and/or informational value, storytelling, technique, and delivery.

11. Video Streaming—Sports

(Non-Metro Only)

The live video stream produced and presented by station personnel of a local sporting event. The entry should be 10–minutes or less of continuous coverage without editing, except live commercials. The criteria for judging are audio and video quality, audience appeal, and professional presentation.

12. Video Streaming—General

(Non-Metro Only)

The live video stream produced and presented by station personnel of a local community event. The entry should be 10–minutes or less of continuous coverage without editing, except live commercials. The criteria for judging are audio and video quality, audience appeal, and professional presentation.

13. Personality of the Year

Entry should represent a typical broadcast. Maximum length is 10 minutes. Teams are okay, must be a single entry. Entry must be a segment from one show that aired in 2022. Entry should represent your regular on-air work, not a remote or special event. Spots and music should be removed. Criteria are entertainment, communicative skills, originality, community involvement, overall appeal, and relevance. Documentation listing entrant's community involvement must be submitted with aircheck.
