

For Official Release
PR 001-10192022
Office of the Governor
Utulei, American Samoa
October 19, 2022

Australian High Commissioner Emily Luck visits American Samoa

"We continue to forge these relationships to adhere to our commitment and to promote stronger security and economic cooperation."

Pictured from left to right: First Lady Ella Mauga, Honorable Lemanu Palepoi Sialega Mauga, Australian High Commissioner Emily Luck, Second Secretary and Consul Patrick.

[PICTORIAL]: On October 19, 2022, Her Excellency Emily Luck, Australian High Commissioner, and Second Secretary and Consul Patrick Lawson, completed their first official visit to American Samoa since being in office in the Independent State of Samoa.

They met with Honorable Lemanu and First Lady Ella Mauga with the purpose to meet with the American Samoa Governor since their appointment to Australia's High Commission in Samoa in 2021, and familiarize themselves with American Samoa and the eastern part of the Samoan island chain.

“I want to thank Her Excellency for her visit to our beautiful home,” stated Governor Lemanu. He continued, “We continue to forge these relationships to adhere to our commitment and to promote stronger security and economic cooperation.”

###

