

For Official Release
PR 001-06062023
Office of the Governor
Utulei, American Samoa
June 06, 2023

Lemanu-Talauega Administration Receives Token of Appreciation from the Miss American Samoa Incorporation

[PICTORIAL]: On June 5, 2023, the Miss American Samoa Incorporation (MASI) President Simeafou Otemai-Imo, and the reigning Miss American Samoa Kauhani Fuimaono presented a Certificate of Appreciation for Governor Lemanu P. S. Mauga and Lieutenant Governor Talauega E. V. Ale. Lieutenant Governor Talauega accepted the certificate at the Governor's Conference Room.

“Thank you for visiting with us today. On behalf of Governor Lemanu, I accept this certificate,” commented Lieutenant Governor Talauega. He continued, “Our sincere congratulations to Ms. Hani Fuimaono for a job well done during your reign, may your future endeavors be blessed and successful.”

Also in attendance were the four women competing in the twenty-ninth Miss American Samoa Pageant whom were given an opportunity to introduce themselves: Ms. Kiahna Feagaiga Safuiono Siufanua sponsored by Lila’s Flora, Ms. Nelda Mareko sponsored by Laga’ali Couture, Ms. Judy Faafetai Tauanu’u sponsored by Fa’atamalii, and Ms. Tatiana Tiare Tausala Tupua sponsored by ICS Families and Friends. Lieutenant Governor Talauega commended the women for their audacity to enter into the competition: “Thank you for sacrificing your daily lives to become an ambassador of American Samoa; I admire your courage and your willing spirit because it is not an easy feat.”

MASI has begun their week-long events and will host the Miss American Samoa Pageant on Friday, June 9, 2023.

###

