

IMPACT

Force Development News

ISSUE 07 – 3rd Quarter 2023

Top Headlines

- MyLearning, digital badging has arrived! MyLearning adds digital badging generation and publishing capabilities. Digital badges contain detailed information on the skills and knowledge an Airman or Guardian has acquired. Read More
- Faculty Qualification Tracking Tool (FQTT). The Faculty Qualification Tracking Tool version 2.0 is now available. This version delivers faster performance for all users. Read More
- Want to develop cross-functional leadership competencies through a short-term experiential project? The Civilian Short-Term Experiential Program (CSTEP) is a new civilian developmental program that enables selectees to participate in a short-term project (up to 6 months) without committing to a mobility agreement. Read More
- The DAF Coaching Program is growing. Coaching is a structured partnership between a “certified” coach and a client where the coach leverages intentional conversations and thought-provoking questions to support individuals in achieving their goals, self-discovery, and unlocking their potential for transformative development across the Total Force. Coaching enhances the capabilities of Airmen and Guardians, ensuring a strong, agile, and resilient force, equipped to face pacing threats. Read More

- CLDS' Workforce Development Book Discussions and Workshops. The Civilian Leadership Development School (CLDS) will facilitate discussions on the book "Fish Sticks" on 18 and 27 July from 1200-1300 CDT. Read More There will also be a workshop in September for Pre-Influence Skills as well as an October discussion series for the book "Influencer". To learn more or to register, e-mail: EakerCenter.DC.WorkforceDev1@us.af.mil
- Want more information on Department of the Air Force Course Announcements? Check out the latest Education and Training Course Announcements (ETCA) and get the latest updated information. Read More
- Check out the Newest Developmental Special Experience (DSE) Listings. Developmental Special Experiences provide Air and Space Professionals opportunities to gain or enhance competencies. More than just education and training, DSEs are practical experiences that enhance Airmen and Guardians' knowledge, skills, and abilities. DSEs are typically external to an individual's primary duties. Read More

- Treasury Executive Institute (TEI) Opportunities. GS 14s and above can sign up for a multitude of civilian development sessions with TEI. You can also request a coach by assessing the coaching overview page under the coaching tab. If you do not have a profile, you can create one on the TEI website. Read More
- Sign up! Civilian Leadership Development School (CLDS) Course Schedules and Enrollment Information. View schedules and registration information for CLDS online courses, including mandatory managerial and supervisory training, performance management coaching courses, the Emerging Leader Course, and the Developing Team Leader Course. Read More
- Get the latest and greatest of things happening within USSF and stay connected. The United States Space Force (USSF) produces their own newsletters to keep the force updated on the latest happenings. You can access their SharePoint site and read the latest as well as their archived newsletters here. Read More
- Looking for previous versions of the FD Newsletter “IMPACT”? You can find archived versions on the AF Portal, FD page. Read More