

For your information and situational awareness COVID-19 Pandemic has impacted the movement of products at Army MDD. Staff shortages at the Warehouse is causing a longer process time to procure products. Second there are delays in shipping freight products due to carriers inability to pick up packages.