Chief

Jack Austin Jr.
Assistant Chief

Dear Applicant,

Halito! Thank you for applying to the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma for assistance. Your request is valuable to us.

The Choctaw Nation teams up with many partners throughout communities in southeast Oklahoma and all over the United States. We are always looking to share resources and work with individuals, organizations, businesses and other entities to improve the quality of life for the Choctaw people and for our neighbors and community partners.

The leadership of the Choctaw Nation is constantly evaluating the needs of our people and our communities, and we must prioritize and plan how to meet those needs effectively. The Choctaw Nation's primary mission is to promote health, education and economic opportunities for over 200,000 tribal members throughout the Choctaw Nation Reservation and across the United States. We support our mission with a vast array of projects, programs and initiatives. It is quite possible that your request fits right in line with or is eligible for support from one of our existing programs; or your request may be a new method for us to fulfill our vision and mission. The information you provide in the attached application form will help us evaluate how you and the Choctaw Nation can work together toward a common goal.

Unfortunately, it is not possible to fund every request. We must prioritize our needs and support the projects and programs that meet our tribal members' needs first. Please complete the attached application form and answer the questions as thoroughly and accurately as possible, so we can ascertain the full extent of your request and to what degree we may be able to help you. You will be notified as soon as we review the request and make a decision. We always give requests fair and objective consideration.

Again, we appreciate your time and effort in completing the application. Please submit the application and any supporting documentation at least four (4) weeks in advance to the following address:

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
