SECTION 1: GENERAL ISSUANCE INFORMATION

1.1. APPLICABILITY.

a. This issuance applies to OSD, the Military Departments, the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the DoD (referred to collectively in this issuance as the “DoD Components”).

b. The Office of Inspector General of the Department of Defense will serve as a non-voting observer on the DoD Plain Language Committee. The Inspector General of the Department of Defense will determine the appropriate level of involvement or participation so as to not impair the Office of Inspector General of the Department of Defense’s independence.

1.2. POLICY.

a. The DoD:

(1) Implements a plain language program.

(2) Requires DoD personnel to use plain language concepts in its documents. Documents requiring technical or specialized language should be as clear and concise as possible.

(3) Maintains the DoD Plain Language Website (referred to in this issuance as “the Website”) at <https://www.esd.whs.mil/DD/plainlanguage> as the official DoD source for Plain Writing Act requirements, training, and compliance information.

(4) Offers, on the Website, a chance for users outside DoD to provide feedback on unclear DoD communications in documents defined in this issuance as “covered.”

(5) Offers a chance for DoD users to provide feedback on unclear DoD communications in documents.

(6) Publishes an annual report on the Website describing DoD Component compliance efforts in accordance with the Plain Writing Act; the January 21, 2009 Presidential Memorandum; and the April 13, 2011 Office of Management and Budget Memorandum.

b. All DoD personnel who regularly write or edit documents must take plain language training, either via the Website or as described in Section 3. All other DoD personnel are encouraged to take plain language training.

1.3. INFORMATION COLLECTIONS.

The DoD Annual Plain Writing Act Compliance Report and DD Form 2960, “DoD Plain Language Compliance,” referred to in this issuance, have been assigned report control symbol DD-DCMO(A)2523. This is in accordance with the procedures in Volume 1 of DoD Manual 8910.01.

1.4. SUMMARY OF CHANGE 1.

The changes to this issuance:

a. Reassign the Chief Management Officer of the Department of Defense responsibilities and duties to the Director of Administration and Management (DA&M) in accordance with:

(1) Section 901 of Public Law 116-283, which eliminated the Chief Management Officer of the Department of Defense effective January 1, 2021.

(2) The January 11, 2021 Deputy Secretary of Defense Memorandum, which implemented Section 901 and reestablished the DA&M.

(3) The September 1, 2021 Deputy Secretary of Defense Memorandum, which clarified DA&M responsibilities.

b. Update references and changes in accordance with current issuance standards.

SECTION 2: RESPONSIBILITIES

2.1. DA&M.

The DA&M:

- a. Serves as the Senior Official for Plain Language to oversee DoD Component implementation of the Plain Writing Act.
- b. Establishes DoD policy, standards, and procedures for implementation and compliance with the Plain Writing Act through the DoD Plain Language Program.

2.2. DIRECTOR, WASHINGTON HEADQUARTERS SERVICES (WHS).

Under the authority, direction, and control of the DA&M, the Director, WHS:

- a. Manages and administers the DoD Plain Language Program.
- b. Develops and maintains DoD-specific policy and procedural information.
- c. Communicates Plain Writing Act requirements to the DoD and OSD Components and offers training options on the Website.
- d. Maintains the Website to:
 - (1) Provide Plain Writing Act requirements, training, and compliance information.
 - (2) Collect amendment requests on DoD covered documents.
 - (3) Publish the DoD Annual Plain Writing Act Compliance Report.
- e. Compiles implementation data for the DoD Annual Plain Writing Act Compliance Report and publishes the report on the Website.
- f. Monitors amendment requests on DoD covered documents submitted through the Website. Reviews requests received to determine their legitimacy and, if warranted, routes amendment requests to the appropriate DoD or OSD Component for further action.
- g. Chairs the DoD Plain Language Committee.

2.3. DOD AND OSD COMPONENT HEADS.

The DoD and OSD Component heads:

- a. Require the use of plain language concepts in all new or substantially revised documents.

- b. Communicate Plain Writing Act requirements throughout their respective Components and oversee compliance.
- c. Require Component personnel who regularly write documents to complete plain language training in accordance with Section 3.
 - (1) Component heads may direct personnel to repeat plain language training, if needed.
 - (2) Components using contractors to help write documents will ensure that relevant contracts entered into after the effective date of this issuance include a requirement that employees of the contractor use plain language when preparing those documents.
- d. Designate a Component plain language contact to serve as a representative on the DoD Plain Language Committee and implement the procedures in Section 3. Provide written documentation of the designation and any changes in that designation to WHS at whs.mc-alex.esd.mbx.dod-plain-language@mail.mil.
- e. Encourage Component personnel to seek clarification from within their organization, as appropriate, before submitting an amendment request on the Website.

SECTION 3: PROCEDURES

3.1. USING PLAIN LANGUAGE.

a. When drafting new documents or revising existing ones, DoD personnel will follow the Federal Plain Language Guidelines available at <https://www.plainlanguage.gov>, as appropriate. Specialized language may be required depending on the intended audience, but language and document organization should be as clear as possible.

b. Key concepts of plain language to keep in mind are noted in Table 1.

Table 1. Plain Language Concepts

Be Clear	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use plain language whenever possible; avoid jargon• Avoid overuse of acronyms (if used, make certain they are established upon first use)• Use the active voice• Organize and filter information with readers' needs in mind• Format the document so that it's easy to read and understand• Use tables or figures if that's the best way to show information
Be Concise	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Remove unnecessary words• Write sentences with 20 words or fewer and that contain a single thought, action, etc.• Use seven sentences or fewer per paragraph
Be Specific	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Include only information that the reader must know• Use words with precise meaning• Include details that are directly relevant to the main point

c. Procedures for users outside DoD to request amendment of covered documents are in Figure 1. Procedures for DoD personnel to request amendment of all documents (including covered) are in Figure 2.

3.2. TRAINING.

a. DoD and OSD Components are responsible for training their personnel. The Military Departments are responsible for ensuring that periodic, annual, or institutional training programs prepare their respective Service members to contribute successfully while assigned to the Joint Staff and Combatant Commands. When assigned to the Joint Staff and Combatant Commands, Service members will be guided by and responsive to the writing guidelines and staff processes of their assigned staff or command. The Components may use training already available to them if it addresses aspects of plain language. At a minimum, training information must address the concepts listed in Table 1.

b. DoD personnel who regularly write and edit documents must take plain language training upon beginning their assignment. All other DoD personnel are encouraged to take plain language training. All DoD personnel are encouraged to refresh their training annually.

c. New DoD personnel should receive plain language training as part of their orientation training.

3.3. DOD AND OSD COMPONENT HEAD PLAIN LANGUAGE CONTACTS.

DoD and OSD Component plain language contacts will:

a. Help Component personnel understand and follow the policy and procedures of the DoD Plain Language Program as stated in this instruction.

b. Identify Component personnel who regularly write or edit documents and ensure they receive plain language training.

c. Oversee requested review of the Component's documents (including covered).

(1) Review amendment requests forwarded from WHS and received from other Component plain language contacts.

(2) Decide how best to handle amendment requests, in coordination with appropriate parties.

(3) Work with the document author to respond to the user or Component plain language contact concerned as quickly as possible with the decision reached in Paragraph 3.3.c.(2).

d. Work with Component personnel to improve communication efforts.

e. Approve and submit annually required information as described in Paragraph 3.5.

f. Serve as a representative on the DoD Plain Language Committee.

3.4. DOD PLAIN LANGUAGE COMMITTEE.

- a. The Director, WHS, or a representative chairs the Committee.
- b. Committee membership includes DoD and OSD Component plain language contacts and other administrative staff carrying out plain language efforts who are full-time or permanent part-time government employees or military members.
- c. The Committee will meet annually, or as needed, to:
 - (1) Help revise policy and guidance.
 - (2) Monitor DoD compliance with the Plain Writing Act.
 - (3) Share plain language best practices and resources.

3.5. COMPLIANCE REPORTING.

- a. DoD and OSD Component plain language contacts must prepare annual compliance information (see Glossary) using the DD Form 2960, “DoD Plain Writing Act Compliance” available on the Website.
- b. Examples of information to be reported include:
 - (1) For covered documents:
 - (a) Number of amendment requests received.
 - (b) Number of amendment requests resolved.
 - (c) Number of amendment requests denied and the justification for those denials.
 - (d) Status and number of amendment requests still outstanding.
 - (2) Verification that the OSD or DoD Component is in compliance with training requirements in accordance with Paragraph 2.3.c.
- c. DoD and OSD Component plain language contacts must submit DD Form 2960 no later than March 1 of each year to whs.mc-alex.esd.mbx.dod-plain-language@mail.mil. DD Form 2960 will record compliance information gathered from the prior calendar year (January through December).
- d. WHS will compile and publish the DoD Annual Plain Writing Act Compliance Report on the Website. It will be published annually by April 13 in accordance with the September 13, 2011 Deputy Secretary of Defense Memorandum.
